The order how the Psalter is appoynted to be reade.

The Psalter shall be reade throug once euery Moneth. And bicaus that some other be longer than som other be, it is thought good to ma them even by this meanes.

To every moneth shall be appointed (as con cerning this purpose) just xxx. dayes.

And bicaus January and March hath on dayes aboue the sayde number, and February which is placed beuareene them both, hath on lye xxviii. dayes: February shal borrowe of ey ther of the Monethes (of January and March) one daye. And so the Psalter which shal be reade in February, must begin the last daye of January, and ende the first day of March.

And wher as May, July, August, October, and December, hath, xxx. dayes a peece: It is ordered that the same Psalms, shall be reade the last day of the sayde Monethes, which were reade the day before. so that the Psalter maye begin

begin againe the first daye of the next Monech culsing.

Mowe to know what Psalmes shall be reade euery daye, looke in the Kalender, the number that is appoynted for the Psalmes, and then shade the same number in thy Table, and vpon that number, shall you see what Psalmes shall be sayde at Morning and Evening prayer.

And where the Cris. Psalme is deuided in to xxii. portions, and is ouerlong to be reade at one time: it is so ordered that at one time shall not be reade aboue fourteene of the said portions, as you shall perceyue to be noted in the Table.

And here is also to be noted, that in this Table, and in all other parts of the Seruice where any Psalmes are appoynted, the number is ex-preſſed after the great Englyſhe Wyble, which from the ix. Psalme vnto the Cris. Psalme following the devision of the portions, doth vary in number from the common Latine tranſlation.

3 The order where

Morning and Euening

prayer shall be vsed and sayde.

The Morning and Euening prayer shall be vsed, in the accustomed place of the Church, Chappell, or Chauncell, except it shall be otherwise determined by the Ordinarie of the place: and the Chanceller shall remayne as they have done in times past.

And here is to be noted, that the Minister at the tyme of the Communion, and at all other tymes in his ministracion, shal vsse such Ordinaments in the Church as were in vsse by authoritie of parlement, in the seconde yere of the reigne of King Edward the sixt.

throughout the yecre..

¶ At the beginning both of Morning praiere, and likewise of Evenynge praiere, the Minister shall reade with a lowd voice, some one of these sentences of the scriptures that followe. And then he shall say that which is written attayn the said sentences.

T what time soever a man dooth repente him
of his sin, fro the bottome of his hart, I will put all his wickednes out of my remembrance saith the Lord.

I doo know none alone
wickednesse, & my sinne is euer against me.

Turne thy face away from our sinnes, O
Lord, and blot out all our offensives.

A sorrowfull spirite is a sacrifice to God, despise not, O Lord, humble and contrite harts.

Rent your harts, and not your garmentes, and turne to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patiens and of much mercie, and such a one as is sope for your afflitiones.

To thee O Lord God, belongeth mercie, and forgiuenesse, for we haue gone awaie from thee, and haue not harkened to thy voice, whereby we might walk in the laws which thou hast appointed for vs.

Correct vs O Lord, and yet in thy iudgement, not in thy furie, least we shoulde bee consumed and brought to nothing.

Amend your liues, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

I will goe to my father, and say to him, Father I haue sinned against heauen and against thee: I am no moze worthy to bee called thy sonne.

Enter not into iudgement with thy seruants, O Lord, for no flesh is righteous in thy sight.

If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceive our selues, and there is no truthe in vs.

Dearely beloued brethren, the scripture moueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sinnes and wickednes: and that we should not dissemble nor cloke the before the face of almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiuenesse of the same through his infinite goodnes and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge ledge our sinnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do when we assemble and meet togither, to reder thanks for þ great benefits that we haue received at his hāds to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, & to aske thos things which be requisite and necessary as wel for the body as the soule. Wherfore I pray & beseech you as many as be h̄re present to accompany me with a pure heart & humble voice, vnto the thone of the heauenly grace, saying after me.

A generall confession to be saide of the whole congregation after the Minister kneeling.

A Lmghtie and most mercifull father, we haue erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe, we haue followed too much the deuises and desires of our own heartes, wee haue offended against thy holy lawes, we haue left vndon those things which we ought to haue done, & we haue done those things which we ought not to haue done, and there is no health in vs, but thou, O Lord, haue mercie vpon vs, miserable offendours. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faultes restore thou them that depenitent, according to thy promises de-glared unto mankinde, in Christ Iesu our Lord. And grant O most merciful father for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name, Amen.

¶ The absolution to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

A Lmighty God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednes and live, & hath given power & commandement to his ministers to declare and pronounce to his people being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins, he pardoneth and absolveth al them which truly repent and wilfully believe his holy gospel. Wherefore we beseeche him to grant vs true reparation, and his holy spirit that those things may please him which wee do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lord's praier with a lowd voice.

O ur father which art in heauen halow-ed be thy name, Thy kingdom come,

Then shall be said or sung this psalm following.

O Come let vs sing vnto the Lord : let vs heartlie reioise in the strength of our Redeemer.

Let vs come before his presence with thankesgiving : and shew our selues glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God : and a great king aboue all gods.

In his hands are all the corneres of the earth: & the strength of the hils is his also.

The sea is his, and hee made it; and his hands prepared the drye land.

O come, let vs worship and fall downe, and kneele before the Lord our maker.

For he is the lord our God: & we are y^e people of his pasture, & the sheepe of his hands.

To day if yee will heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation: & as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse.

When your fathers tempted me: psonned me, and saw my works.

Fortie yeares long was I greeued with this generation, and said: It is a people that doo erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowne my waies.

Unto whome I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glorie be to, &c. As it was, &c.

Then shall folowe certeine Psalms in order, as they be appointed in a Table made for that purpose: except there be proper Psalms appointed for that day.
And at y^e end of euery Psalme throughout the yere, and likewise at the end of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shall be repeated,

Glorie be to, &c. As it was, &c.

Then shall be read two Lessons distinc-

Be with a lowd voice, that the people may heare. The first of the old Testament, the second of the new, like as they be appointed in þ Kalendar, except there be proper Lessons assigned for that day the Minister that readeth the Lesson, standing and turning him so, as he may best be heard of al such as be present. And before euerie Lesson, the Minister shall say thus: The first, second third, or fourth Chapter of Genesis, Exodus, Mathew, Mark, or other like, as is appointed in the Kalendar, and at the end of euery chapter, he shall say:

Here endeth such a Chapter of such a Booke.

And to the end the people may the better heare, in such places where they doo sing, there shall the Lessons be sung in a plaine tune, after the maner of distinct reading, and likewise the Epistle and Gospell.

After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus, in Englysh daily through out the whole yeere.

¶ And after the second Lesson, shall bee sung and said Benedictus in English as followeth.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us in the house of his servant David.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy pi-phets: which haue beeene since the world began.

That we should be saved from our en-emis: & from the hands of al that hate us.

To performe the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy coenant.

To performe the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us.

That we being delivred out of þ hands of our enemis: might serue him without feare.

In holines and righteousness before him all the daies of our life.

And thou child shalt be called the proph-

Morning praier.

of the highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes.

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the Day spring from on high hath visited vs.

To give light to them that sit in darkness,
and in the shaddowe of death : and to guide our feete in the way of peace.

Glory be to the, &c. As it was: &c.

¶ Or the C. psalme. Iubilate.

O Be iothfull in the lord all ye l 1 nds: serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

We ye sime that the Lord he is God, it is he that hath made vs, & not we our selues:
we are the people, and the sheep of his parture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise:
be thankfull unto him, and speake good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is everlasting: and his truthe endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to, &c. As it was, &c.

Then shall be saide the creede by the mynister, and the people standing.
